

Navot Volk

Managing Director, Microsoft Accelerator

Over 15 years of experience in the software industry.

Proven records in managing companies, from incubation to global sales.

Playing an active role in driving forward and developing company policies, goals and strategies.

Broad understanding of all aspects of the product life cycle from the design stage to the implementation and up to the launch in customer sites worldwide while serving millions of users.

My expertise covers a range of markets, including enterprise software, consumer web and mobile.

High capacity for motivating all sorts of teams, such as developers, product managers and designers.

Cofounder of SmartContent (M&A with Emblaze Ltd in 2006).