

Indradeep B. Jadhav

---

A seasoned water professional with over 18 years of experience in Consulting services, Techno-commercial operations, Project and Site management activities in Water and Waste Water Treatment. He renders his services of consulting, planning and techno-commercial operations fronts for successful implementation of Water & Waste water treatment projects. Assist urban local bodies, public authorities, consultants, and engineering & construction companies to address water sector challenges and build economically advancing projects. Indradeep endeavours towards adaptation of technological advancement in water and wastewater projects for project evaluation and cost effective project development with locally feasible best practices.

Indradeep has rich experience in multicultural business environments with large MNC's and Indian organisations.

He has done his B.Tech in Chemical engineering.

At Unilever, he facilitates integrated solutions of Water & Waste water and structured approach toward Sustainability and produce products by minimising environmental impacts.