

Ministry of Economy
OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR GENERAL

כ"ח סיון תשע"ג
2013-0046-225

Mr. Amit Lang

Amit Lang was appointed Director General at the Israeli Ministry of Economy (previously known as the Ministry of Industry, Trade and Labor) in June 2013. Before joining the Ministry, Mr. Lang held numerous senior positions in both the public and private sectors.

He previously held a number of senior positions in the Israeli Ministry of Finance's budget division, including serving as Deputy Director of the budget division. Mr. Lang was Deputy Director General at Partner Telecommunications Company Ltd., one of Israel's leading mobile services suppliers, heading the Economic and Regulations Division.

Since 2006, Mr. Lang has served on Boards of Directors of several major companies and authorities, including; Israel Electric Corporation (IEC), Israeli Airports Authority (IAA), the Israel Water Authority and The Israel Sports Betting Board (head of the financial committee).

Mr. Lang holds a Bachelors degree in economics, an MBA and a Masters degree in Public Policy.

Mr. Lang holds the rank of Third Dan black belt in Judo and was a member of Israel's Olympic team at the 1992 Barcelona Games. Mr. Lang has won the title of Israel's Judo Champion on seven different occasions and in 1994 placed 5th overall in the European Judo championship.

Born in 1970, Mr. Lang lives in Shoham, Israel, together with his wife and three children.