

Boaz Harel

CEO Knock n'Lock
VP R&D, Knock n'Lock
VP R&D Fourier Systems

Since 2014 Boaz Harel is the CEO of Knock n'Lock, as the CEO Boaz leads over all operations and senior management activities as well as international business development initiatives in variety of industries such as telecom, water utilities, banking, goods in transit and more. Knock n'Lock develops, manufactures and market multidisciplinary integrated systems for securing strategic remote sites.

Boaz Harel joined Knock n'Lock in 2012 as the VP R&D following 6 years of senior managerial experience in R&D, engineering, and operations. Boaz served as the VP R&D of Fourier Systems, a leading global manufacturer and distributor of data logging systems for education and industrial labs. Prior to Fourier System, Boaz held a number of senior managerial development positions at leading companies, and in the MABAT IAI Factory (Israel Aerospace Industries)