

Gilad Cohen, Director, Head of Industrial Water BU, IDE Technologies.

The Industrial Water BU of IDE Technologies is providing water treatment solutions for produced water and process water as well as treating industrial effluents streams up to Zero Liquid Discharge (ZLD). The primary industries of focus are the Oil & Gas, Power and Mining industries.

Gilad has been leading IDE's business growth in the Industrial Water Treatment segment for the last four years. His role and responsibilities include sales and marketing, strategy and business development, as well as related product development activities.

Gilad has over 10 years of experience in Business Development, Inception and Development of new businesses as well as strategic consulting.

Graduate of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem - B.Sc. in Computer Science and MBA Magna Cum Laude, Business Management majoring in marketing. Gilad also served as a mentor in the Global Business Studies Program of the Recanati Business School at the Tel Aviv University.