

Nicholas Atkins is Managing Partner of Georgieff Capital Advisors (UK) LLP and leads the firm's Cleantech M&A and Private Placement Advisory Practice. He has over 20 years of corporate finance and private equity experience, and has advised on a range of M&A and corporate finance transactions across various industry groups, including the cleantech and IT technology sectors. He has also successfully led a number of private equity transactions both as an advisor and principal.

Mr. Atkins has an MBA from the Kellogg Graduate School of Management, and is a dual British and US citizen. He is a Board Observer at Tiger Optics LLC and a member of the European Advisory Board of the Cleantech Group LLC.