

Ophir Gore

Head of Trade Mission

Embassy of Israel in Beijing, China

Ophir is the Head of Trade Mission at the Embassy of Israel in Beijing, China, since August 2014.

During the years 2012-2014 he served as the Director of the Renewable Energy & Alternative Fuels Department at Israel NewTech – The Israeli National Energy & Water Program, Ministry of Economy.

Until 2012, Ophir served for 4 years as the Israeli commercial attaché to Taiwan.

Ophir had also served in the Middle East & North Africa Department, Foreign Trade Administration, and as the assistant to the Director of the Foreign Trade Administration, at the Ministry of Economy.

Prior to that, Ophir also served as an Attorney in the Legal Department for Special Cases at the Tax Authority, Ministry of Finance.

He is a Member of the Israeli Bar and is a Graduate of Tel-Aviv University, Faculty of Law, (LL.B, LL.M).