

Shai Shoval - short CV:

Shai is the CIO of Hagihon Ltd, the Jerusalem Regional Water & wastewater Utility, since 2012. With a B.Sc. in Industrial Engineering (Information Systems), and L.L.B And M.A. in Law, Shai is responsible for the development and maintenance of Hagihon's Computer Applications and Infrastructure, including Cyber Security, and for Israel Water Authority Regulatory Compliance. His accomplishments at Hagihon include: First municipal utility in Israel to implement complete SAP ISU with technological service, First utility achieving PCI Data Security Standards (Version 3) accreditation in SAP environment, Partnering with a variety of SMART Water innovative technologies, and constructing (in collaboration with the Israeli Water Authority) a Security Template for Municipal Water Utilities.