

Tammy Mahn - founding Managing Partner of Moonscape Ventures, a $120 m corporate investment arm of AGT International, which focuses on the Internet of Things (IoT), big data and analytics domains. Tammy began her career as a management consultant in McKinsey's London Office and was one of the first to join the Israel office where she worked with leading companies. She then spent about a decade at market leading VCs Pitango and Evergreen. Prior to launching Moonscape Ventures, Tammy served as a top liaison to institutional investors in Israel as part of Hamilton Lane's team.

Tammy has a B.Sc in Chemistry from the Tel Aviv University and M.Sc in Chemical Physics (cum laude) from the Technion, Israel Institute of Technology.