

Zvi Schechter, Co-Founder, Chief Investment Officer and Managing Director

Zvi Schechter co-founded Giza Venture Capital in 1992 following 20 years of experience in private equity, investment banking, research and company valuations. At Giza, Zvi focuses on information technology, Security, Mobile and Internet. As Chief Investment Officer, Zvi is responsible for identifying significant trends, overseeing deal flow, due diligence and portfolio valuations.

Zvi is responsible for Giza investments in Takadu, ViewFinity, Continuity, Soluto, StorONE, AppSee and WalkMe and has been involved in numerous successful investments including Cyota, Telegate, MoreCom, Yadata, Soluto and Oridion. He is currently on the boards of Continuity Software, Viewfinity, TaKaDu, Odysii, StorOne, WalkMe, Mintigo and AppSee.

Zvi co-founded Giza Group in 1985, and served as a financial adviser to major Israeli banks and government-owned companies undergoing privatization. Previously, he was Chief Economist at Leumi & Company Investment Bankers with responsibility for advisory services, corporate finance, due diligence, fundraising and underwriting.

Zvi earned his MBA from Tel Aviv University and a BSc in Economics and Management from the Technion, both magna cum laude.

Zvi served in the IDF (Israel Defense Force) as Budget Officer in the Ordnance Corp in the rank of Captain. He oversaw the Corp's Research and Development budgets during this period.