

Zohar Scheinin, Co-Founder and CSO, KANDO

Zohar is the Co-Founder and Chief Customer Success at KANDO. In her role Zohar was in charge of hiring and shaping Kando's culture from scratch. Zohar is now responsible to convert small scale projects to large scale projects. She manages the customer success department at KANDO and responsible for the relationship with clients in Israel, Europe and the US. Prior to Kando, Zohar was the HR Manager and Executive Assistant to the CEO at DHV Israel, an International Environmental Consulting Firm. As part of her responsibilities at DHV, Zohar led HR, Finance, Logistics and Suppliers. Prior to DHV, Zohar was a cross-organization Project Manager and Finance Controller at Cellcom, one of the largest mobile phone operators in Israel. Within this role, Zohar managed a team of 20 people and a budget of $10M US. Zohar acquired her _____ degree at _____ university.